The Tower

1949

Hello! So this is Westbrook Junior College. I've been sent to get a bird's eye view of a down to the earth place. My private investigation will include a visit to the Dean's office, a fast smoke in the cafeteria, a weary wait outside Miss Carter's office and a thorough workout of all keyholes. The inquiring mind, you know. I may even risk my life in the lunch line, but I'll keep away from the Zoo lab. I don't want my wings clipped.

WESTBROOK JUNIOR COLLEGE

PORTLAND, MAINE

For the sixteen years you have worked to make our school one of which we are proud . . . for the calm informal way you have walked among us . . . for being a man that has shown us not only knowledge but decent living . . . we, the Senior Class of Westbrook Junior College, dedicate this yearbook of 1949

To You,

Girls Are Being Trained As Individuals

My assignment seemed simple enough. I thought a glance would do it, but there's more to it than meets this bird's eye. They are not just students, they are people. Each girl proves her individuality many times in her college life and belies rumors that W. J. C. students are like so many identical model-T's. Religious and social clubs are made up exclusively of individuals. Personal accomplishment is a standard in the W. A. A.; in sing and varsity, talented students amuse and edify their "best friends and severest critics." Most girls have had fingers in several pies, both serving and being served.

First row: Marjorie Hitchcock, Ruby Rosenburg, J. Schumaker, Frannie Ackerman, Jean Cloutier, Alice Bean, Jane Bowkett.

International Relations Club

As its name implies, the International Relations Club interests itself in the various phases of contemporary problems and affairs of all nations. Its meetings have been devoted to discussions of China, Communism, Palestine, and Germany to date. Supplementary movies, speakers, and a regional conference at Bowdoin College have served to point up, heighten interest, and increase knowledge of the studies of each particular topic.

Six times during the college year the club sponsors the very able travelling lecturer and reporter, Mr. Harrison Lakin, formerly of the American Diplomatic Service. His timely lectures have been of great informational value and interest to club members as well as non-members, for they are open to all students.

Monthly publications of the "United Nations News" and the "I. R. C. News" plus collateral material furnished by the college library bring up-to-date information within reach of the student of world affairs. These periodicals contact with other active clubs and make known many opportunities for scholarship and exchange fellowship in other countries under the sponsorship of United States government agencies, universities, and research councils.

This year the club was directed by Mrs. Phyllis T. Libby.

First row: Elizabeth Lee, Jo Varney, Joan Sweetser, Faith LaFleur, Betty Ann Mayo, Ginny Danforth, Jane Bowkett, Carol Evans, Jean Blumenthal, Mary Scoll, Pat Tibbetts, Marilyn Bennett.

Second row: Shirley Jones, Marion Murphy, Elsie Gilman, Win Clark, Jean Day, Eleanor Bagley, Florence Gunn, Mary Jackson, Nancy Hill, Ardith Meserve, Bev Pitman, Jane Anderson, Gloria Ferris, Jane Sharron.

Fourth row: Martha Davis, Diantha Holbrook, Janis Cook, Doris Lutz, Florence Taylor, Pauline Gardiner, Martha Luce, Marilyn Smith, René Simpson, Joyce Cole, Doris Robinson, Jud Brooks.

Fifth row: Norma Janelle, Nancy Barnard, Patricia Grote, Mimi Wheelwright, Katherine White, Nadine Pendleton, Barb Stone, Mary Fernald, June Brown.

Glee Club

The Glee Club at W. J. C. as a single unit and in combination with other groups has appeared in public more than any other organization at the school.

The club combined with the Bowdoin Glee Club, presented its major concert of the season at the Eastland Hotel, February 26. Following the concert was a formal dance.

In March, the club gave a performance in Lewiston and presented a concert at the Boston Pops, May 22.

The organization has been very successful this season. Other engagements were presented for the Portland Men's Club and the Rotary Club at the Falmouth Hotel.

Seated: Mary Helen Fernald, Sylvia Gunderson, Jean Blumenthal, Sally Stockton, Pat Lenart, Bev Putnam, Jane Brown, Mary Jane Flynn.
 Standing: Marty Marshall, Marilyn Meserve, Pat Russell, Jean Cloutier, Alice Bean, Shirley Clay, Mary Lou Marks.

The Language Club

The Spanish Club held its meeting twice a month in the day room during chapel hour. These meetings, to which all members were required to attend, consisted of business discussions along with any special plans individual members might have had.

The club participated in the Christmas festivities with the various houses and clubs, singing an original Spanish carol, "Venid Pastores."

Mr. Victor, a member of the faculty and formerly a teacher in Puerto Rico, gave a talk in November on the tours he had taken in South America and his duties at the Puerto Rican School.

A dance was given in March with authentic Spanish decorations.

The officers of the Spanish Club were: Beverly Moody, president; Alice Bean, secretary; Beverly Putnam, treasurer; and Miss Helen Lecko, faculty advisor.

The officers of the French Club this year were: Jane Brown, president; Jean Blumenthal, secretary; Sylvia Gunderson, projects chairman. Miss Wade was the club's advisor.

During the year the club sang Christmas carols over the radio station WPOR with the French Club of Portland Junior College. They also exchanged correspondence with a school in Cannes, France.

First row: Barbara Lawry, Ethel Chernus, Pat Groté, Sally Allen, Cilla Denby, Barbara Rochford, Jackie Meyer, Harriet Gunn, Joan Falavy, Polly Steele.
 Second row: Gloria Ferris, Marilyn Sherman, Dot Perkins, Ginny Danforth, Barbara Stone, Norma Sorlie, Natalie Jenkes, Joyce Cole, Sylvia Gunderson.
 Third row: Nancy Barnard, Janet Goss, Judy Keegan, Ellie London, Joan Barry, Mary Lou Jackson, Dot Dodsworth, Connie Wood.

Science Club

The Science Club, though one of the newest clubs on the campus, is most active. It is open to all students of the college, and it provides a program to meet all interests.

The club meets monthly and each month a different type of entertainment is offered. Field trips to Boston, frequent movies, dances and demonstrations prove to be of most interest to the members.

There has been a good membership this year and a field trip to Harvard Medical School Museum in the Spring was the big event of the year.

Edward Victor is the club's faculty advisor. The officers chosen for the year were: Cilla Denby, president; Barbara Rochford, vice president; Sally Allen, treasurer; Margaret Myers, secretary.

Second row: Eleanor Bagley, Norma Sorlie, Phyllis Chase, Bunty Maling, Nat Jenkes, Martha Luce.

Student Christian Association

The purpose of the Student Christian Association is to create unity among the student body through tolerance and understanding. It provides Chapel services, Sunday candlelight services, entertainments, and group gatherings for the girls of Westbrook. The S. C. A. meets with Christian Associations of other colleges. The association also sponsors the well known speaker, Harrison Lakin.

Each house and the day students have a representative to inform the members of meetings and activities.

The members chose as officers for the year: Janet Goss, president; Cilla Denby, program director; Nancy Johnson, vice president; Phyllis Galanto, secretary-treasurer.

First row: Pat Groté, Jane Bowkett, Pat Greene, Sally Stockton, Tina Chaltas, Cilla Denby, Ellie Bagley.
 Second row: Chris Maravelias, Shirley Ginn, Nancy Barnard, Janice Cook, Barbara Stone, Natalie Jenkes, Priscilla Parsons.
 Third row: Joan Sullivan, Paula Webb, Barbara Sponders, Barbara Lane, Eva Giberson.

Riding Club

The Wanakea Riding Club is one of the largest and most active clubs on the campus; it boasts a membership of 49 students. The officers of this year's club were: Sally Stockton, president; Shirley Chisholm, vice president; Joan Towne, treasurer; and Tina Chaltas, secretary.

The club is fortunate in having the advantages of the clubhouse, the many trails, the rings, and the variety of horses at the Tomlinson Riding School. Instruction in jumping, equitation, and show riding is available to club members who have special permission. Most appreciated of all is the kind and ever-ready advice and help of Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson, better known to all as "Mom and Pop."

Besides the regular monthly meetings the club sponsors such activities as suppers, moonlight rides, and breakfast rides for the Fall season. Highlights of the winter season are the Christmas party, complete with tree and presents; the Winter Carnival, when the Riding Club is hostess club to all the students and their guests at the riding school for a day of sports and fun; and meetings in the Day Room of Alumni Hall, followed by huge suppers and movies. The spring season brings once again the moonlight rides, breakfast rides, and cook-outs by the river. Highlight of the spring season is the Horse Show and the performance of the Drill Team.

Varsity Hockey Team

First row: Mary Lou Marks, Elizabeth Lee, Pat Whittemore, Jo Vaughn, Alice Bean.

Second row: Barbara Lane, Elaine McFarland, Faith LaFleur, Anna Biggs.

Field Hockey

The field hockey teams, both the Varsity and the Maroon and Gray, were a group of energetic and enthusiastic girls. The varsity played two games, Deering High School and Kents Hill. It was a thrill to watch the fast playing of some of the girls. Biggsey was everywhere at once, or so it seemed to the spectators and the other team. Cinnie Jones and Mimi Wheelwright were two good players, Cinnie at center halfback, and Mimi playing forward. In the intercollegiate games, the Maroon beat the Gray by a rather large margin. The girls all had plenty of spirit, and all their victories were hard earned.

 Second row: Polly Steele, Barbara Eldred, Jud Brooks, Dot Stockton, Tiny Harlow, Barbara Thompson, Smokey Manning, Anna Biggs, Chris Maravelias, Jackie Meyers, Shirley Clay, Mae Crisp.
 Third row: Winnie Clark, Helen Goynea, Ducky Duckworth, Dot Garniss, Cynn timer Jones, Peg Smith, Flossie Taylor, Jerry Turnier, Joan Browne, Jo Shumaker, Paula Webb, Bev Young, Claire Bailey.
 Fourth row: Irene Buyniski, Gloria Ferris, Barb Vitagliano, Connie Foster, Joyce Klink, Beth Leighton, Joan Towne, Carolyn Chellis, Alice Smith, Barbara Lord, Barbara Saunders, Eva Giberson.

Ski Club

Long before the first snow fell in the mountains the fifty members of the Ski Club were busy polishing up their hickories, practicing their turns, or learning the groundwork before taking to the slopes.

As soon as snow became an actuality in the vicinity of Portland, the Ski Club took off three and four times a week for Bridgton, Dyke Mountain, Pleasant Mountain, and Jackson. Gradually even the beginners were able to snow-plough, herring-bone, and stem-turn.

This year WJC had a ski team for the first time in its history, and a very successful team. On February 5, the team composed of Mary Condon, Cynthia Jones, Carol Evans, Joan Towne, and Dorothy Garniss competed with 32 girls from the University of New Hampshire, University of Maine, Waynflete School, Deering High School, Portland High School, and Kents Hill School and returned with a ski trophy.

Joan Towne, who won first prize for downhill racing in this event, went on to represent the Northeastern United States in the International Meet in Canada.

This truly was an eventful year for our stars, but no less enjoyable for every last one of us.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Front row: Coke Carter, Marilyn Patten, Nora Harrington, Elaine McFarland, Barbara Cushing, Elizabeth Leighton, Mac Crisp.
Back row: Squirt Eldred, Anna Fenwick, Cinnie Jones, Joan Towne, Dot Garniss, Gerry Turnier, Buntly Maling.

Basketball

The basketball season started with inter-house games. Whitman and Bell were the champion houses, Whitman defeating Houghton, 24-9; Lodge, 31-25; and Johnson, 42-10; Bell defeating Goddard, 20-10; and Johnson, 34-12. Lodge had done well by trimming Hersey, 19-13; Bell, 28-11; and Melville, 26-16; until they were defeated by Whitman. Deering bowed to Melville in a 22-19 defeat, but triumphed over Goddard, 18-15. Hersey defeated Goddard, 18-15; and Melville, 18-13. Houghton trampled Johnson, 28-14. The day students, however, were superior to all the houses, walking over Houghton, 31-5; Whitman, 39-11; Deering, 42-1; and Bell, 37-7.

The next game was a Freshman-Senior battle, and the younger fry were victors, 36-16.

The climax of the season was an hilarious game between the faculty, dressed in pajamas and wearing hair ribbons, and the day students. The faculty played a game full of tricks, from providing a basket of their own to shooting water-pistols, and the day student Indian cheerleaders kept the time-outs lively with their war-whoops and dances. The score, quite a minor item, 36-24 in favor of the day students.

The Varsity team won over Nasson College twice—35-20 and 65-17, but lost to the alumnae, 19-12. Those who played for the Varsity were: forwards—Cushing, Packard, Eldred, Maling, Jones, Harrington, McFarland, Crisp; guards—Carter, Turnier, Fenwick, Towne, Leighton, Vitagliano, Patten and Garniss.

Girls Are Being Trained As Leaders

Plato, who wasn't a bad old bird himself, said that man by nature is a political being. These girls can rival any man at the game; I'd bet my nest on it. They have learned the importance of public opinion. Westbrook, a world in small, has taught them that there is no such thing as an inarticulate mob. Every man has the power to raise his voice. Every Westbrook girl has a chance to audition.

Seated: Camille Salamone, Bev Putnam, Pat Tibbetts, Sonny Meserve.
 Standing: Gloria Ferris, Janet Bruyette, Connie Goddard, Barbara Lawry.

Student Council

The aim of the Student Council is to bring about general improvements in the college routine by acting upon student and faculty suggestions. It serves to maintain an equilibrium between the college administration and the student body. It discusses and tries to settle the problems of the student's campus life.

With the advice of Dean Kimball, the Student Council meets every two weeks in Hersey 106.

Combined meetings with the Residence Board and Miss Carter have been an addition to the Student Council this year.

Students are represented by three Freshmen and five Seniors under the Presidency of Beverly Putnam with Patricia Tibbetts as Secretary.

Some of the functions of the Student Council with the Residence Board have been the Sunday night chapel services and the use of the day room and the gym for dates.

Social functions included were a dance held April 8 by the Student Council and a joint meeting with Portland Junior College.

The Student Council elects students to be awarded special honors at graduation for outstanding contributions and participation in the college as well as composing the grey handbook for the Freshmen.

Girls Are Being Trained For Professions

I'm overwhelmed! They were right when they said college girls know all about everything. The generation of the clinging vine, whose specialty was painting china, has passed. Any happy housewife can also claim her place as a professional of no little prowess. She may be a journalist, an actress, a musician; or she may specialize in the more obtruse Middle English dialects. Whatever she does, she's well trained to do it. It's no life for a bird-brain like me, but they say that a Westbrook girl sweeps the floor with a professional flourish.

The Masque and Candle Club

Curtain call—curtain call—smoking in the outer lobby, please. The house-lights dim as the curtain goes up on the first act, whether it was a one-act play, the Christmas pageant, or the spring three-act play. They were all successes with Miss Farren coaching behind the scenes. Come out this afternoon and help paint the slats, okay? Where's the cold cream? I'll never be able to get this grease paint off.

The excited chatter of compliments from the enthusiastic audience after the last act as Weezie Lee and Jackie did their bit for the talent show.

Westbrook News

Blood! Sweat! and Tears! These seem to be the bywords for our W. J. C. newspaper this year. Those last minute changes . . . hunting . . . and filling in an unseen space. But — we finally made it. The paper was a success every time.

The Staff was one of the most capable ones that we have ever had. Most of our thanks go to our faculty advisor, Miss Denison.

The staff was headed by:

Editor-in-Chief	Beverly Holgate
Managing Editors	Selma Milliken, Mary Wheelwright
News Editor	Patricia Foran
Feature Editor	Nora Harrington
Sports Editors	Barbara Eldred, Alice Smith
Book Review Editor	Patricia Greene
Circulation Manager	Helene Danas
Editorial Director	Nancy Hill
Advertising Editors	Ferne Robinson, Renée Simpson

Of course these people did their jobs, leading their respective departments, but we can't forget the reporters who brought the news to the office and typed it up. These reporters were: Van Ness Maling, Joan Miller, Ruth Reeves, Joyce Brown.

Girls Are Being Trained To Live Together

In these days everyone realizes that the need for brotherhood is great. Westbrook girls are trained to live together in harmonious accord, by means of two years of dormitory life. They have their petty disagreements, but when they are through I am sure that all of them will agree that they are much better equipped to live in the world of tomorrow. I guess I'll fly down and have a look at the casual group now.

Goddard Hall

When this school year rolls by, Goddard Hall is going to miss all the things that have brightened up our Freshman year at Westbrook. Most of all we will miss the last minute dashes to get to the sign-out book before we were marked late coming in from our dates . . . Polly's bridge hands . . . the "sunny" faces from Bev's room . . . Donnie's weekend trips . . . "Chief's" clowning . . . Day Student News

Whether in the chem lab, the zoo lab or in one of the sec rooms in Alumni Hall, one cannot escape the strong smell of fresh paint. Through the efforts of our day students' representatives, the day student's room is getting a new coat of paint. The colors are a pastel green and a lovely deep green which blend together to give the room a newness and cleanness. The lockers and woodwork have been painted grey and there are grey curtains with just enough maroon to contrast with the rest of the room. The radio and victrola are once again working and there are some wonderful new records.

Among the Carnival Candidates were: Nancy Barnard, Elaine McFarland, Ardeth Meserve, Jo Anne Vaughn, and Patricia Whittemore.

The day student's room and the front of alumni hall will be decorated in accord with the snow-sculpture of Ferdinand, the bull.

The dance given by the day students was a great success which we owe to the committee of Beverly Young, chairman; Barbara Crockett, Norma Jannell, Mary Lou Marks, and Patricia Whittemore.

Barbara Hiller became engaged to Robinson Cook early in February and Claire Irish to a Freshman at Harvard.

First row: Billie Bilodeau, Carol Evans, Judy Bean, Marilyn Duckworth, Carolois Mitchell.
 Second row: Shirley Harkinson, Cilla Denby, Connie Goddard, Smokey Manning, Sally Allen, Lynn Smith, Renee Simpson.
 Third row: Mary Condon, Nance Hill, Joyce Hinchliffe, Nat Jenkes, Squirt Eldred, Helen Gonyea, Robie Robinson, Ellie Bagley, Nancy Margolis.
 Fourth row: Doris Lutz, Dottie Lonsbrough, Betty Ricker, Jean Sargent, Allie Smith, Connie Wood, Margie Gaskell, Betsy Spicer, Joan Boedeker.
 Absent: Ruth Southworth, Muriel Campbell, Jean Margolis, Jo Varney.

Houghton Hall

What a terrific year! !! Will you ever forget the Margolis sisters and their laugh, the quarrelsome threesome of Lutz, Spicer and Robinson always quarreling yet best of friends, and Connie, the life of our parties? Remember Dottie's haircut with little Squirt as the mad barber? Carol Evans was always on the phone while Carolois was corresponding with B. U. There was Connie Wood and Betty Ricker's banquets, Billie and all her clothes, Lynn and her frequent trips to the U. of Maine, Joan and all her men, Allie's carefree manner and Nancy Hill's witty sense of humor. Duckie was our adopted Frosh, Sally, our financier, and Nat, the monopolizer of the mails. Jo was our song bird, and Ellie, our weekend traveler. Remember Moo's My Happiness, and Renee's loyal trips to first breakfast, Cilla's D. U. pin and Marji's piano talent? Smokey was Westbrook's queen and Helen everybody's ideal. Last, but not least, we won't forget Mary's skiing achievements, Joyce's 19-inch waist! Shirley set the styles, Jean was true to Dave, Judy kept us laughing and Ruth was everyone's friend.

Miss Farren and Miss Hotaling stood by us through it all. How could we ever forget? ? ?

HOUGHTON HALL

First row: Pris MacIntosh, Phyllis Chase, Puss Walker, Jane Bowkett.
Second row: Janet Powers, Eleanor Cheverel, Lucy Montella, Bev Grace.

Johnson House

Remember the snake in Puss's bed? . . . "Oh, my goodness" . . . Jane and her weekends at Bowdoin . . . The night owl . . . Bev's "there was a little girl who had a little curl" . . . who keeps the lights on to knit, kids? . . . "I came in to water my plants" . . . the trouble Shev has getting up in the morning . . . Mac's "light dawns over Marblehead" . . . the night Betty had a "pie" bed . . . Lucy's "Open the light" . . . "Well now" . . . Puss's "Wot's happened?" . . . Mac and Johnny . . . Bev and the food . . . Puss's music box—don't touch . . . Mac wouldn't miss Fred Waring . . . Hey, Cathy, "Isn't that sweet?"

Fun wasn't it, kids?

JOHNSON AND FACULTY CLUB

Seated: Sibbie Lawson, Pat Foran, Pat Proudfoot, Van Duram, Sally Cutler, Jackie Jackson.
 Standing: Pidge Howard, Ellie London, Mac Crisp, Judy Keegan, Janet Goss, Ethel Chernus, Barb Thompson, Geri Kopf.

The Lodge

Ten Seniors ensconced on the top floor with Geri, Jackie, Barb, and Patsy sharing the bathtub with their lucky housemothers — Miss Denison and Miss Wade . . . Christmas engagements — Van to Bill, Pidge to Tom, and Pat to Tib . . . Twosomes were the order of the year with Jan going steady with her Bowdoin Zete, Bill; Jude knitting for Gene; Ellie listening to WCSH's favorite announcer, Jerry; Ethel's beautiful sweater for Ray; Barbie waiting eagerly for the mail and weekend visits from Larry and all Lodge enjoying his packages from Schrafft's; Sibbie true to the Navy . . . Budding actress Jackie stealing the Talent Show as Anatole, and the Christmas play, as Mary . . . Lodge in the Basketball semi-finals . . . Midnight parties in Jan's room . . . Mac's varsity basketball . . . Geri's barrage of correspondence from West Point . . . Lodge's community boy friend Vuskin lured by our own Jennifer Jones-X Sallus . . . Denny's procession of cats . . . nocturnal visit from Dr. Proctor to see the Lodge fire . . . fixing up the smoker for Winter Carnival weekend and the campaign to have it painted . . . Fire Chief Patsy with her own coat-of-arms . . . rooting for our active housemothers, "Droopy Drawers Wade" and "Great Big Billy Goat Denison."

Back row: Pat Lenart, Mary Jane Flynn, Harriet Gunn, Phyllis Galanto, Reggie Malek, Mimi Wheelwright, Red McCurdy, Shirley Clay.
 Second row: Beverly Putnam, Barbara Stone, Helene Danas, Weezie Lee, Ruth Reeves, Evelyn Kaknes.
 First row: Lois Havenstein, Virginia Hayduk, Barbara Lane, Joan Towne, Alice Chefalo, Joan Kapopoulos, Janice Everett.

Melville House

What would Melville be without Red to keep the house in a turmoil, Lois and Prissy with their water pistols, Reggie and Joanie at the piano, Penny and her German or Tish with her Philosophy? Then there's Weezie with her never-ending line of men, Charlotte, the bridge fiend and Phyllis, the brain of the house with her five A's.

If Evie didn't get a phone call every morning, noon, and night from Warren, or if Mimi didn't have Phil, and little Alice with her great big Sam. Rollo keeps the third floor in a riot, while Barb gets all flustered when David's coming. Can you picture Shirley, Harriet and Stoney separated?

Oh, Ginny's a little sleepy and Pat Lenart's got her hair up in rags. We also have Norma, another pianist to our credit. Bev and M. J. with their quiet dignity that wins all hearts and the newcomer, Jan Everett, who has already won herself a place among us.

Last but not least there is Joan Towne, the president of the house, with her right-hand man, Ann, trying her best to keep peace in the house as quiet proctor.

MELVILLE RESIDENCE

Seated: Tomi Nadeau, Elinor Doyle, Honey Gelotte.
 Standing: Joyce Osborne.
 Absent: Lois and Joy Boothby.

Seventeen

Remember the good old days at Seventeen . . . Tina drawling "Hi Podner" at everyone . . . June and her unforgettable laugh . . . Charlotte always saying "Bill won't love me anymore" . . . Jean with her dry sense of humor and her wild imagination keeping us all in stitches and Connie always getting her afternoon letter from Ernie . . . and then there was Caryl with her man trouble . . . and Nat—the spirit of Seventeen — spending most of the day in bed but still managing to be the life of the party.

And then the new year came and a lot of changes. Tomi remained to hold down the fort . . . Honey dragged in and our time is spent urging her to hurry . . . Elinor always managing to bump into everything — remember the time she broke the light globe . . . and Joyce getting grey over her mixed-up love life . . . Remember the night Lois and Jay had a birthday party and all that wonderful food?

Seated: Janet Irving, Bunty Maling, Jane Lewis, Nora Harrington, Curly Chapman, Barbara Lawry, Peg Smith, Joan Miller.
 Standing: Cleo Nichols, Tibby Thibodeau, Pat Smith, Barb Vitagliano, Polly Lewis, Tangy Moody, Barbara Black, Ann Biggs, Pat Grote.
 Absent: Joyce Brown, Marcia Whidden.

Whitman House

Will we ever forget those pie beds which we made on a certain few; and then in retaliation, when we crawled into our own bed, weak from laughter and found them in the same condition. But those water fights took the cake, for indeed water was not the limit, powder and perfume proved to be handy weapons. It all started, however, with the evacuation of Room 25, a mere playful gesture to be sure but which caused a turmoil quite uncharacteristic of us peaceful Whitman Gals.

In reminiscing, we must not leave out the opposite sex, who frequented 696 Stevens Avenue, representing: U. N. H., Babson, B. U., R. I. S., Worcester Academy, Maine, Trinity, Yale, and of course, Bowdoin . . . Speaking of fellows, those Seefood for diverting chats and such. bago weekends provided plenty of Did someone mention sunburns or tans??? Those Beachwood weekends, Peg's turn was first, but the rest weren't far behind.

What coöperation—what friendliness — what wonderful house mothers — it's over now, but not forgotten.

DEERING HOUSE

A Bird's Eye View of Winter Carnival

From my perch atop the Tower I watched the Westbrook girls get ready for their winter highlight. First, much snow had to be gathered by each house for the making of their snow sculpture all in keeping with the general theme of "children's stories." All week the girls were out working on their masterpieces (and even the faculty was seen hard at work moulding a three-headed troll). And naturally there was much buzzing of activity when the votes were being taken for Winter Carnival Queen. On Friday night, April 18, they all gathered at the ice-throne to watch Dr. Proctor crown Eleanor "Smokey" Manning as queen with Elaine McFarland, Carolyn Chapman, Joan Towne, and Cynthia Jones as reigning court beauties. Then I watched them go through mad antics of various sorts as they presented their ice-skits.

We all retired to the gym for the ski-boot dance and could hardly wait to hear that Deering had won first prize for their "Little Engine That Could."

Saturday's outdoor activities at Tomlinson's were climaxed by the beautiful Snow-Ball at the Eastland presided over by Queen Smokey and her court.

A Bird's Eye View of Westbrook at Play

The first thing I noticed in my travels is that college is peachy. The girls seem to have such fun being there and being together. Whether they're meeting the faculty at a reception . . . walking to "Junior's" for a snack . . . playing a good game of bridge in the smoker . . . ironing out problems with the Dean . . . having cokes in the Cafe . . . Having impromptu parties in the dorm when an unexpected package arrived from home . . . even cramming for exams . . . and indulging in everything outdoorsy from ice-skating on the rink to sunbathing in back of Hersey.

These Are The Girls Who Are Being Trained

In my travels as a bird-about-Westbrook, I've looked through some old yearbooks and found that this year's Seniors are different. They are more aware of themselves and their world, and look it straight in the face. Two years of fun, study, and reflections have made these girls ready to build a secure future for themselves and those to follow. Congratulations! ! !

Exhausted by my arduous journey through the hinterlands, I feel a little like a hummingbird that didn't know when to stop. I have enjoyed my trip though, and will gladly conduct a guided tour any time you are willing to open the book. I want to give my pin feathers a going-over first, these down here. This is the end.
